

DOMESTIC MINOR SEX TRAFFICKING IN THE U.S.

In 2009, under a grant from the U.S. Department of Justice, Shared Hope International conducted undercover investigations that revealed many of America's children are being used in the commercial sex industry. Children who are exploited through prostitution, pornography and sexual entertainment are victims of domestic minor sex trafficking. Due to misidentification, ignorance, or efforts to keep victims safe from traffickers, these minors are often placed in detention facilities. Growing demand for sex with young, innocent children is fueled by a glorification of pimping and normalization of sexual exploitation.

AT A GLANCE: THE PROBLEM

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN THE U.S. IS A $9.8 BILLION INDUSTRY

100,000+

At least 100,000 U.S. children are exploited in prostitution every year in America.

Pornography rewires the male brain to become dependent on chemicals. This dependency is linked to negative perceptions, attitudes, and aggression toward women.

13 YEARS OLD

is the average age a child is first exploited through prostitution.

WHO ARE THE VICTIMS OF DMST?

Kids are especially susceptible to the deception and manipulation of traffickers. Traffickers recruit at locations that commonly attract youth; like schools, malls, parks, even protective shelters and group homes.

Boys and girls can be victims.

1.68 MILLION

Over 1.68 million American children run away each year.

In one New York study, 85% of DMST victims experienced contact with the child welfare system.

VICTIM VULNERABILITY: SEVERAL FACTORS

The primary factor of vulnerability: the child's age.

1 out of 5 girls, and 1 out of 10 boys will be sexually victimized by the time they reach adulthood.

WARNING SIGNS: TRAITS OF TRAFFICKING

- Significantly older boyfriend
- Signs of trauma (physical or other)
- Travel with older male (not guardian)
- Chronic runaway
- Multiple delinquent charges
- Homelessness
- Special marked tattoos
- Substance abuse

Young girls are commonly trafficked in strip clubs, hotel rooms, and on online sites like BackPage.com.

70%

THE DEFINITION OF DMST

It is the "recruitment, harboring, transportation, provision, or obtaining of a person for the purpose of a commercial sex act" where the person is a U.S. citizen or lawful permanent resident under the age of 18 years.
